

Name: _____

Sienna says..... You've got

SPUNK!

Trying something new the first few times may seem a bit tricky. You might fall, you might cry, and you might even want to give up. Throwing in the towel may look like an easier option. Sienna wants you to know that when you keep giving it your very best, you my friend, have SPUNK and will find success. Don't you give up! Keep going!

Directions: Circle the sentences that best describes a person with SPUNK. Use the lines below to explain why you came to your conclusion.

1. Carli is learning to double-dutch and can't seem to jump in at the right time. She jumps out and leaves. _____

2. Kevin is learning to ride his bike without the training wheels. He keeps falling, but he gets up and keeps on riding. _____

3. Anya has a goal of selling 15 boxes of cookies by next Friday. On Monday, she realizes she only sold 3 boxes. She gets upset and throws away the rest of the cookies. _____

4. Ronald joins his school's track team. When he finds out that they meet a few times a week for practice, he drops out. _____

5. Macy is in a beginner's dance class. Casey, her best friend, has moved up to the advanced dance class. Macy trains hard for weeks and soon learns that she will be joining Casey. _____
